Street Naming for Annie Malone October 18- City of Peoria to Celebrate Annie Malone with Honorary Street Naming

Issues Update
October 19, 2023

An honorary street naming was on Wednesday, October 18 at the corner of State and Adams Streets to honor Annie Minerva Turnbo Malone, largely regarded as the first African American female millionaire. The location was chosen due to its proximity to Ms. Malone's former Peoria home.

Speakers at the event included Mayor Rita Ali, Councilwoman Denise Jackson, author Pam Adams, and James Agbara Bryson, a relative of Ms. Malone and author of The Hidden Story of Annie Turnbo Malone: The First Black Female Millionaire. Everley Davis, Assistant Curator and Community Engagement Coordinator at Peoria Riverfront Museum, will also speak. The Peoria Riverfront Museum's exhibit, "Life and Legacy of Annie Malone", is currently on display.

Born on August 9, 1869, Ms. Malone moved to Peoria Illinois as a teenager. She attended classes at Peoria High School, but health problems forced her to withdraw. She began practicing hairdressing with her sister and, using her knowledge of chemistry, she started experimenting and developing her beauty products. She moved to St. Louis in 1902 and this would prove to be the most influential and productive time of her life. It was here where she would expand her business into a storefront, broaden her marketing efforts through advertising and press events, and enhance her sales force by recruiting employees and establishing a training program for her staff. In 1918, she established Poro College, named after one of her best-known products, and, on the campus, opened a school, manufacturing plant, retail store, cafeteria, residential facilities, a gymnasium, bakery, and a chapel. This would serve as a popular community hub for the African American residents of the area. In 1924, Malone's net worth was $14 million dollars. Wanting to share her wealth by helping others, she made donations to the YMCA, Howard University College of Medicine, and the St. Louis Orphans Home, which was later renamed Annie Malone Children and Family Services Center and is located at 2612 Annie Malone Drive in St. Louis. For the last 113 years, a parade has been held in her name on May Day in St. Louis.

City of Peoria Introduces Online Digital Budget Book

Ahead of this year's budget deliberations, the city of Peoria released the digital budget book. This online resource will allow users to see financial information on the City's operating budget, personnel expenses, department spending, capital improvement projects and timelines, and more. Visitors will also have access to funding sources and fund summaries.

The budget dashboard was announced by Finance Director Kyle Cratty at the October 10 City Council meeting. Director Cratty noted, "This is the first year we are using an online budget transparency tool. This is a live, interactive tool on our website so the Council and the community can have access to the same information in what I hope is a more accessible transparent format."

Information pertaining to the budget can also be found on the city of Peoria website. This page will include presentations made at City Council meetings and report-backs to the City Council. The initial review of the biennial budget is scheduled for Tuesday, October 17 at 6:00 p.m. in Council Chambers. The City Council will meet every Tuesday until the passage of the biennial budget. The budget must be passed and filed with the County Clerk by the last Tuesday in December.

Community Development – City of Peoria Hosts Two Free, Family-Friendly Halloween Events

The City is hosting two free, family-friendly trick-or-treat events in October: Trash-or-Treat and City Hall-O-Ween.

Trash-Or-Treat: Saturday, October 21 | 9 AM – 11 AM

Join Community Development staff for a neighborhood litter cleanup and be rewarded with treats! Costumes are encouraged for this family-friendly event.
